Anne-Laure specialises in Tax Law and mainly advises French and foreign private equity clients and corporate groups on their transactions, more particularly with respect to due diligence and structuring, both from a sell-side and a buy-side perspective, as well as in connection with post-acquisition restructuring. She also addresses specific tax questions, advises on restructuring and tax audits. Member of the Haut-de-Seine Bar since 2008, she holds a postgraduate Degree in Tax and Business Law – DESS-DJCE (2005) and masters' Degree in Business Law (2004) from the University Paris II Panthéon-Assas. She also graduated from Sciences Po Paris (2002). Anne-Laure started her career at EY Société d'Avocats in 2006 where she became Partner in 2016. She joined De Pardieu Brocas Maffei as Partner in 2020.
