De Pardieu Brocas Maffei, one of France's leading business law firms, reveals its new visual identity

The business law firm De Pardieu Brocas Maffei reveals its new visual identity, which is both audacious and committed. This new graphic design, in line with the firm's strategic orientation, upholds the values that have always defined it since its creation, and brings its know-how, recognized by clients and peers, to the fore, while strengthening its image among young professionals.

A benchmark in business law for over 30 years

De Pardieu Brocas Maffei, which now has over 160 lawyers including 40 partners, has established itself over the years as a leading reference in business law both in France and internationally.

With a multidisciplinary range of first-class skills and recognized expertise on the market, it offers its clients top-quality support in Mergers & Acquisitions & Private Equity, Banking - Finance & Capital Markets, Real Estate Transactions & Financing, Restructuring & Companies in Difficulty, Tax Law, Competition Law, Intellectual Property, Public Law, Labor Law and Business Litigation.

More than a firm, more than a brand, we are a "Home"

Building on its historic values, De Pardieu is known for its uncompromising commitment to excellence. Its teams devote particular attention to the details of each case entrusted to them, and constantly seek out new tools and innovative techniques to remain at the cutting edge of their practice areas.

De Pardieu supports its clients and associates in their development, and keeps pace with changes in the legal world. We are proud to contribute to raising the level of business law practice in an independent and loyal manner, while transmitting the values that define us.

With an open window on the world, De Pardieu continues to develop its proximity and ties with international law firms, in order to offer its clients centralized and privileged access to a network of diversified legal expertise.

"Drawing on our 30 years' experience, this new milestone embodies our strength: our ability to maintain our heritage, while reinventing it in line with developments in the legal world. The elegance and modernity of our new logo reflect the firm's image: premium, forward-looking and international. We will continue to promote our values by passing on our experience to future generations, building on our complementary expertise, striving for excellence for our clients and providing them with the highest level of legal certainty", says Managing Partner Emmanuel Fatôme.

This new visual identity was designed in collaboration with Curius.
